4-H Open House

Thursday, February 20th 2020, 6:30 p.m.

4-H teaches youth responsibility and gets them involved in serving their community. They also learn new things through different projects they choose to participate in whether they choose an animal related project, a STEM project, art or cooking project or more. The options are truly unlimited! You will have the opportunity to speak with current youth involved in 4-H, hear their experiences and how much 4-H has benefitted them. There will also be club advisors present to speak with, who can tell you about their experience with 4-H and how you could possibly get involved in their clubs. Also, many committee members will be present which consist of adult volunteers who are involved in different areas such as advisory committee and different livestock committees. Come and see what 4-H is all about!
