

Learning to Jump Study Guide

What equipment/ tack do you need to jump?

Which bit is designed to be used with double reins and not recommended for beginners?

What basic skills should you be able to do before attempting to jump?

What does trotting through a grid of cavaletti teach your horse?

How many poles should you have for cavaletti and how far apart should you first place them?

What part of the jump should you go over?

Where should you look when jumping?

What are the results of hitting the horse in the mouth when jumping?

How do you correct this?

What is the length of a canter stride?

What are the 4 parts of a jump?

1.)

- 2.)
- 3.)
- 4.)

What will your horse likely do if you look down at the jump?

What could happen if you start jumping your horse without proper warmup?

How long should you warm your horse up before jumping?